

Nordiska aborts process for combination with Swiss Bankers and Omnio

Press release issued by Nordiska Kreditmarknadsaktiebolaget (publ)

7 April 2023

Nordiska Kreditmarknadsaktiebolaget (publ) (Nasdaq Stockholm: NOKRE001) ("Nordiska") has on 4 October 2022 announced that it aimed to combine Swiss Bankers and Omnio with Nordiska to create a pan-European financial solutions group.

Nordiska hereby announces that due to new circumstances and unresolved matters, none of the transactions that were announced will be accomplished.

"Nordiska has put in a lot of efforts in trying to make the transaction happen. Sadly, the circumstances necessary to agree and accomplish the transaction were not at hand, and Nordiska is therefore not in a position to be able to go forward with the transaction. Nordiska is, as recently released year-end report shows, growing and making good results. We therefore, notwithstanding not accomplishing the transaction, look with excitement and confidence on possibilities ahead." says Mikael Gellbäck, CEO of Nordiska.
